ORDER

JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

Earlier today, the Court received a letter from Plaintiff, attached as Exhibit A, in which he indicates his willingness to accept an alleged settlement offer from Defendants to dismiss his claims in this case in exchange for the payment of “all court costs.” No later than September 24, 2020, Defendants shall file a letter notifying the Court whether it is willing to settle this case on those terms.

If Defendants indicate they are so willing, the Court will enter an order dismissing the case and discontinuing without costs, without prejudice to the right to reopen the case within sixty days if the settlement is not consummated. If Defendants indicate they are not prepared to agree to those terms, then they shall file the letter required by the Court’s Order of September 18, 2020, ECF No. 64, advising the Court of whether and how the parties wish to proceed, no later than October 1, 2020.

No later than September 25, 2020, Defendants shall mail a copy of this Order and the above-mentioned letter to Mr. Funes and file proof of such service.

SO ORDERED.

COUNTER 2

Honorable Jesse M. Furman,

I am currently going thru divorce process at the moment. Due to the extreme amount of emotional distress that I am experiencing, I am considering to accept the proposed offer by John Schemitsch. He proposed a settlement offer over the phone (while in a conference call with Stephanie Vilella). His offer consisted of him/his firm paying for all court costs and dismissing the claim. I don't really care about money... I'm more mentally/psychologically damaged than anything. And this divorce is only making things worse for my mental state of mind. I'm too emotionally hurt to proceed with anything. I'm not okay right now, and at this time I would like to forgive what those officers did to me and accept the lawyer's settlement offer. I sent him a letter informing him that I am willing to accept the offer. But, I have not heard from him ~~sense~~ since. This entire thing is giving me a headache. May you please confirm with him/her if they are willing to proceed with the settlement offer or not, so we can put this incident behind us?

Thank you for your time and consideration,

Sincerely, Mr Funes
